The University of British Columbia is proud to be a partner with Simon Fraser University, British Columbia Institute of Technology and Emily Carr University of Art + Design in the Centre for Digital Media. Since its inception, the CDM has established itself at the leading edge of digital media and art. Its graduates from the Master of Digital Media program continue to make names for themselves around the world for their innovative and creative work in the areas of games, animation, film and other fields.

The CDM is an outstanding example of the innovation, creativity and collaboration that will help British Columbia and Canada excel in the 21st century.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Deborah Buszard', with a large, stylized flourish at the end.

Deborah Buszard
Interim President and Vice-Chancellor
